ARCHDIOCESE OF BRISBANE SYNOD24:

“I Am Making All Things New” Rev 21:5

This year the Archdiocese will celebrate SYNOD24 to mark the Implementation Phase of the Plenary Council. Together we'll discern the practical and Spirit-led actions that we, as the Archdiocese of Brisbane, need to undertake to be a more co-responsible church on mission. These actions will take into consideration what is already happening across the Archdiocese that should be affirmed, what learnings can be harnessed and shared, and where the gaps and needs are.

SYNOD24 will take place over two sessions, September 6th and October 11th and 12th, with the Opening and Closing Masses open to the public.

More information on the SYNOD24 journey will be released regularly, so head to www.aobsynod2024.com to refresh yourself on the Plenary Journey so far and to learn more about SYNOD24.

GOSPEL REFLECTION: Mark 6:1-6

Today's gospel extract from Mark presents us with a very human scene. Jesus is in Nazareth and goes with His small band of followers to the local synagogue on Shabbat. He has obviously been invited to take a reading from one of the prophets and comment on it. Mark says He began teaching in the synagogue, but one has to be invited by the leader to address the assembly. Jesus clearly impresses the gathering with His words and the locals begin wondering where He picked up such wisdom. We immediately see 'tall poppy syndrome' kicking in here.

Jesus already had a reputation for being a Healer, so where did this amazing ability come from? We can hear the voices of the locals. 'We knew Him as a kid, we know His family.' The implication is that He has no right bunning on airs and graces – and they did not accept Him. There is no attempt here to evaluate what He was saying or give any kind of credit for possible wisdom. A rush to judgment on the basis of externals.

How do we recognise the prophets in our midst? Are we too busy passing judgment on their background or style, or looks or clothes, accent or hairdo to notice what they are saying? From a merely sociological point of view the Bible shows us how the prophets were consistently persecuted in their lifetime and then canonised years after their death. At this point, the hypocrites pretend they recognised the sterling qualities of the prophet all along. A perfect example of social humbug.

Alpha is a 10 week program that creates an opportunity for parishes in the Archdiocese of Brisbane to make and form disciples who go out into their neighbourhoods and wider community. Alpha can also be used as a fantastic complementary resource for the enquiry period of the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) journey.

Come and See is an experiential event for parishes to see what a typical Alpha session looks and feels like. It will be the first destination point on our Alpha Journey with four more destination points along the way.
